Where History & Horses Harmonize ...

Eastern Flank Battle Park 1343 Carnton Lane

We are now booking the facility for your personal or corporate events for 2009- 2010.

The possibilities are endless in creating an elegant yet affordable affair, for any special celebration. Located in Historic Franklin Tennessee, Eastern Flank Battle Park is an ideal and versatile venue.

The facility boasts approximately 2000 square feet of indoor space with scenic views of mature trees and rolling landscape overlooking the former Civil War Battleground.

Immediately surrounding the building are areas (concrete pads) that present countless opportunities to add large tented events on the grounds. We can easily accommodate groups from 10-500.

Whether you are looking for a small meeting place or a location for a large group we can provide you a site that is an excellent choice for a non-profit fundraisers, family reunions, corporate events / meetings or wedding receptions.

For additional information please call the Programming Division at 615.794.2103 or email to parks.info@franklintn.gov.

The Park at Harlinsdale Farm 239 Franklin Road

The Park at Harlinsdale Farm has endless opportunities, as well, offering the public unbridled views and the chance to experience and enjoy this natural and historical piece of land.

One can reflect back on Franklin's past by overlooking the pastures and grounds imagining not only the Civil War battles but also the famous Harlin horse breeding business that was legendary on this former working farm.

This park is an ideal location with acres of possibilities to showcase a variety of events and professional productions. This diverse venue lends itself to a myriad of events including themed parties, tradeshow, product launches, art and balloon festivals, and private concerts. It is ideal for outdoor weddings, fundraisers, jamborees, hootenannies, company picnics, cars shows, craft shows, fundraisers and so much more. You are limited only by your imagination for this rustic setting.

The Program Division is now taking applications for events that would be held outdoors. Please go to www.franklintn.gov, click on Parks and under "documents online" please view the terms and conditions and fees for Harlinsdale and Eastern Flank Battle Park and select either the over 200 or less than 199 application, depending on the size of your group.
